

Occupational Health Physician (Lead Consultant)

ELAS Occupational Health has an exciting role for a Occupational Health Physician (Lead Consultant) either on a full time or part time basis. The role will be a mixture of remote working and face to face consultations in the northwest, primarily from our offices in Eccles, Manchester.

Part of the Citation Group, ELAS OH provides the full remit of Occupational Health services to our clients nationwide. We are looking to recruit an experienced Occupational Physician to provide leadership to our expanding multidisciplinary team of OH professionals.

Overview:

You will be the clinical lead at our Head office and will be pivotal to our effective delivery of first rate, evidence-based, occupational health services.

You will have a leadership role in our highly motivated and customer focused team, working within a supportive culture, and with encouragement to progress in your career and develop areas of special interest.

Job requirements:

- Full GMC registration with a valid licence to practice.
- Consultant in Occupational Medicine
- GMC specialist register entry
- Experienced in commercial occupational health provision
- Full UK driving licence.
- Ideally on the appointed Doctor list, however support to obtain entry can be provided.

The role:

You will be expected to undertake a mix of clinic work, administrative duties, team management, mentorship of colleagues, and the full range of work expected of an accredited specialist in this field. The successful candidate will also have input in clinical governance and help maintain clinical standards.

Although predominately based at our head office in Eccles, you will undertake occasional clinics at other sites in addition to remote consultations.

You will report to our Chief Medical Officer but will have the opportunity to develop your management skills and grow the role as an integral part of the Occupational Health Leadership Team.

Benefits:

- For the right candidate, we are offering a market competitive salary starting at £130,000 per annum. (pro rata if applicable)
- 25 days holiday per annum, plus public holidays (pro rata if applicable)
- Life assurance.
- A pension plan.
- GMC, indemnity, FOM, appraisal and revalidation fees paid.
- Cash Plan

For enquiries regarding this role please send your cv and covering letter to vikki.blease@elasoh.co.uk

